About your Seminar

4 Paper Buildings has brought together a specialist ancillary relief team to discuss the issues in variation applications in the current economic climate.

Chaired by Head of Chambers and leading money silk, Jonathan Cohen QC, Michael Sternberg QC and Charles Hale, (all recognised by Chambers and Partners as leaders in the field) will be joined by Jason Lane, a leading forensic accountant with considerable expertise in ancillary relief cases.

When is the right time to apply? How to value assets? and, What questions to ask the accountants? These are just some of the topics that will be explained in this informative and interactive seminar.

The team will discuss the issues to be considered and the current difficulties faced by applicants and respondents when seeking to vary financial orders.

Subject to 1.5 points CPD. The seminar will be followed by canapés and drinks.

Places are limited so please book early to avoid disappointment.
