

International Children Law Update: April 2013

An Update for Family Law Week

5th April 2013

Barristers

Jacqueline Renton

Jacqueline Renton, Barrister of 4 Paper Buildings, reviews the latest key decisions in international children law.

In this review, I shall focus on the following areas:

- 1) Habitual residence
- 2) Enforcement and procedure in Hague Convention 1980 proceedings
- 3) Re-return in Hague Convention 1980 proceedings
- 4) The use of arbitration in international children law proceedings
- 5) Jurisdiction in the context of Brussels II Revised Regulation 2003.

To view the full article click here

Author

Jacqueline Renton

Source

Family Law Week