

Children: Public Law Update (January 2014)

An update for Family Law Week

24th January 2014

Barristers

John Tughan QC

John Tughan, analyses recent judgments in public law children cases and, in particular, the Re B-S line of authorities.

This article will deal with:

- the recent decisions flowing from the Re B-S line of authorities;
- a decision involving conditions attached to a placement order;
- publicity issues;
- a decision which helpfully sets out the procedural issues and principles on the question of whether a special guardianship order or an adoption order is appropriate.

To read the full article click here

Author

John Tughan QC

Source

Family Law Week