

International Children Law Update: February 2014

An update for Family Law Week

22nd February 2014

Barristers

Jacqueline Renton

Jacqueline Renton, barrister of 4 Paper Buildings, reviews the latest key decisions in international children law.

This review, is focused on the following areas:-

- Recent Supreme Court judgments concerning habitual residence, parens patriae, separate representation of children
- The interplay between care proceedings and international law
- Returns to a third state under Hague Convention 1980.

To read the full article click here

Author

Jacqueline Renton

Source

Family Law Week