Profile

Alex specialises in complex and serious children cases; both private law and public law. In particular those involving; intractable child arrangements disputes, internal relocations and leave to remove from the jurisdiction, serious emotional abuse, child fatalities and significant injuries and serious abuse with disputed medical evidence and often with linked criminal proceedings; allegations of sexual abuse; including false allegations; and factitious illness.

He also has extensive experience in Inquiries both Public and Part 8, e.g. currently representing Lambeth BC and Leicestershire CC in the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse (IICSA), representing one of the local authorities in the Climbié Inquiry, being Counsel to the Isle of Man Commission of Inquiry into the Care of Young People.

He was instructed by the children in reputedly the longest running care case in English legal history; the threshold hearing lasting for some 5 months.

He regularly advises local authorities on policy issues.

Alex also advises the media in relation to various aspects of family law.

He has been in practice for over 30 years and in that time has built up extensive experience in all types of children cases. Although the majority of his practice is now in London, he travels regularly to courts across the country and to various International jurisdictions.

Alex regularly lectures at family law conferences eg at Dartington Hall. for Jordans and at seminars and provides training for judges (through the Judicial Studies Board), solicitors, psychiatrists and social workers.

He writes for various publications including Family Law Week, Solicitors Journal, New Law Journal, and is currently one of the editors for Butterworths Family Law Service

Recommendations

Alex Verdán QC is without doubt one of the best, if not the best, barrister specialising in high calibre private children law cases.

“A calm, almost laconic exterior camouflages a razor-sharp intellect, encyclopaedic knowledge of the law and a rapier-like Court technique.

Alex is much loved by his clients Also by many of their spouses: until they realise that they have been gently mugged by his subtle, deadly cross-examination technique.

Thoroughly to be recommended.”

Jeremy Levison

“Alex Verdán is superb at what he does. At his level one expects his knowledge of the law to be very good but what he offers in addition is:

1. A very approachable style. As a solicitor one feels welcome to contact him as and when needed without having to send formal instructions. He is flexible, responsive, and easy to contact. At the same time he is respectful of the solicitor’s role and relationship with the client.

2. His client handling skills are very good / superb. He is gentle and sensitive but doesn't pull his punches where needed in explaining risks / possible adverse outcomes etc.

3. His written work is good and he appears measured and thoughtful in court which is a gift in children work.”

Pamela Collis

“Alex is top of the premiere division in terms of advocacy. An excellent ‘bed side’ manner with clients and a great eye for detail. A calm and measured approach and an ability to achieve unlikely results.”

Sean McNally

“Alex has an excellent client manner and is superb in cross examination.”

Lisa Jones

“Calm and authoritative in advice (instinctively you know that you can cleave to his advice and assessments);

Focused and effective in court (reads the court, says what is needed with conviction and moves on);

Highly available and supportive (very user friendly for briefing solicitors);
Definitely a rock for when you are in a hard place.”

James Pirrie

“Alex is a meticulous campaigner who provides advice and results in a calm and authoritative manner. On his feet Alex delivers lethal cross examination often cloaked in such reasonable terms that few can see the storm coming. The children’s silk of choice for any complex case.”

Mark Freedman

“I have had the pleasure of working with Alex on a number of difficult and complicated children cases over the last few years. He has a calm and measured court room manner which makes him a firm favourite with the Judges. He knows the law, does not take bad points, is always very well prepared and is very good at empathising with clients. He has a good sense of humor and is a pleasure to work with. I am confident that if I instruct Alex on a case my client will receive a first class service. Alex is one of the best QC’s at the Family Bar who specialise in this area of law and I commend him to anyone who is in need of his expertise.

Julian Ribet

“I had the good fortune to be recommended Alex Verdan’s professional services via a legal adviser.

During what proved to be a highly complex and extremely difficult case, Alex was faultless in every sense. His understanding of the matters at hand, grasp of the case load overall and management of all professionals concerned was commendable.

From day one, I was put at ease as a client – at no point did I doubt for an instant that Alex was anything less than 100% in control – in private conference his manner is reassuring and comforting, whilst always laying out the balance of issues, giving an overview to me as the client.

“I would unreservedly recommend Alex in this very specialist area of Child Law. We worked on a very complex, high profile case, that had previously proved very difficult. His guidance and insights were both proactive and pragmatic. He is a dream advocate and achieved every milestone he set for our client.”

Richard Harbord

“I have no hesitation in recommending Alex as a barrister in Family Law work. He has assisted me in several cases and been great to work with. He is proactive, an excellent advocate and always willing to go the extra mile for the client. I am truly impressed!”

Suzanne Kingston

“A cool head, an exceptional advocate and a great tactician.

Michael Rowlands

“Alex is a dream barrister. He is expert in his subject of children law, he speaks with authority, he wins his clients’ trust and he is very easy to work with. What I most enjoy about working with Alex, and there are many things, is the attentiveness which he brings to cases. Ideas are treated with respect, questions promptly responded to, expectations managed sensitively, and clients made to feel that they and their views are important.

Alex is also trained as a mediator and a collaborative lawyer, the skills of which he transfers with ease to his work as an advocate.

I cannot recommend him highly enough.”

Gillian Bishop

“Having instructed and worked alongside Alex, I have been very impressed by his impeccable knowledge and skill in the Court room. His ability to handle the most sensitive and complex cases with ease is a great attribute. Alex is gracious and inspiring to watch in the Court room. He is able to manage the client’s expectations to the highest standard. It has been a pleasure to work with Alex and I would not hesitate to instruct him again.”
