

Re G (A Child) (2016)

[2016] EWCA Civ 297

10/03/2016

Barristers

Christopher Hames KC

Court

Court of Appeal

Practice Areas

International Children Law

Once an appeal against a judge's decision in family proceedings had been withdrawn, it would be wholly inappropriate for the Court of Appeal to interfere with the order below, other than to add undertakings offered by one of the parties and to update its implementation dates.

To read the full case summary click here

Permission

