

Children Public Law Update (May 2016)

An update for Family Law Week

20th May 2016

Barristers

John Tughan KC

In this update John Tughan QC considers recent case decisions touching upon the following issues within the area of Public Children Law:

- Publicity and transparency issues
- Guidance on dealing with cases involving newborn babies
- The burden of proof as it is applied to radicalisation cases
- The court's power to interfere in the registration of names
- Guidance on cases concerning the children of foreign nationals, specifically in the context of a "relinquished baby".
