

X v X (2014)

[2014] AC0145500

26/06/2014

Barristers

Mark Johnstone

Court

Family Division

Practice Areas

Financial Remedies

It was appropriate to vary a periodical payments order made in financial relief proceedings where the husband's financial position had changed since the original order was made and where the judge who had made the original order had made it clear that the wife had been expected to start to contribute financially to her own support but she had made no effort to seek work.

To read the full case summary click here

Permission

