

IAFL Conference

16th March 2018

Charlotte Baker and Adele Cameron-Douglas have both received grants from the International Legal and Professional Development Grant programme (funded by the FLBA and the Bar Council) to attend the IAFL Conference in New York in April 2018. The conference, focussing on international family law concepts and practice, will include speakers from throughout the United States, Canada, United Kingdom, Europe and South America.