

Cyrus Larizadeh QC

20th May 2019

Cyrus Larizadeh QC has been appointed to visit Bermuda in June as part of a UK delegation to assist the Government of Bermuda and its various agencies with compliance with the extension to Bermuda of the Lanzarote Convention on the Protection of Children.

This appointment comes as a result of his successful training programme for the Bermuda Bar Association the Judiciary and safeguarding agencies in Bermuda in April.