

Nadia Campbell-Brunton Legal Assistant

Nadia joined 4PB in September 2019 as a Legal Assistant. She assists members of chambers across all family law specialisms.

Before joining 4PB, Nadia worked part-time as a Caseworker at Advocate (formerly the Bar Pro Bono Unit). Nadia helped applicants seeking legal help and prepared case summaries for barristers interested in assisting. Nadia also volunteered with the Personal Support Unit at the CFC during her legal studies. She assisted litigants in person with their legal documents and accompanied them to court.

Nadia has also gained experience of family law whilst working as a freelance clerk for solicitors in the Liverpool area during university holidays. Nadia took notes in court and conferences and produced case summaries for solicitors.

Nadia graduated in 2015 with a BA in Classical Archaeology and Ancient History from St Hilda's College, Oxford University. She undertook the GDL in 2018 and has just successfully completed the BPTC, having been awarded a Major Scholarship from Inner Temple. Nadia was the author of 'Putting in a Good Work' which was published in the Easter 2019 edition of the FLBA's Family Affairs.
