

Julia Townend on BBC Radio London

4th October 2019

Julia Townend was interviewed on BBC Radio London on the news that Age UK have revealed 200,000 people aged 60 to 74 suffered domestic abuse in England and Wales in one year, with warnings that the total could be higher due to unrecorded abuse. This is poignant given the discussion happening in Parliament around the Domestic Abuse Bill.

You can hear the full interview here, 1hour 9 minutes in.