

President's Guidance For Remote Hearings

19th March 2020

Please see link below for the just released guidance from the President which gives the green light to remote hearings in family cases.

The administration of family justice must go ahead and is achievable in the vast majority of cases. We need to work together to make it happen.

Please click here to read the full guidance.