

Mani Basi and Lucy Logan Green write for the Family Law Journal

7th January 2021

Mani and Lucy write about the circumstances in which local authority involvement (public law) can become relevant within private law children proceedings.

To read the full article click here.