

4PB delighted to welcome Piers Pressdee QC

1st February 2021

Chambers are delighted to announce that Piers Pressdee QC, formerly of 29 Bedford Row, has joined 4PB with immediate effect.

Widely regarded as one of the country's leading children lawyers, Piers took silk in 2010, is a former co-chair of the ALC and is co-author of the forthcoming 'Dictionary of Private Children Law'.

Consistently recommended by the directories, Piers is ranked in the top tier for children law by the Legal 500.

Head of Chambers, Alex Verdan QC, said "Piers is a great addition to the 4PB team and chambers are very pleased he has joined us."

Piers said: "I am thrilled to be joining the best children law chambers in the country. My previous set could not be more understanding and my new set could not be more welcoming."

To view Piers' profile click here.

Published in the: New Law Journal and Today's Family Lawyer.