

S v T

[2021] EWFC B11

18/03/2021

Barristers

Nicholas Fairbank

Court

Central Family Court

Practice Areas

Financial Remedies

Nicholas Fairbank represents the husband in a case, where financial settlement was impacted consequent upon government guidance given after the Grenfell tower disaster. The lack of a fire safety certificate meant that the property valuer was obliged to decline to give the property (the family home) substantive value until the certificate was available.

To read the judgment, click here

Permission

