

Cyrus Larizadeh QC, appointed by the UK Government to train lawyers in Bermuda.

4th June 2021

Cyrus Larizadeh QC has been appointed by the UK Government to create a framework for Litigation Guardians in Bermuda and to train their lawyers in the representation of children the next 12 months. He has been invited to visit the island to work with the family justice community to create the best tandem model going forward.