

Re A&B (Children) (deaf parent: assessment and practice)

[2021] EWFC 10

29/06/2021

Barristers

Sam King KC

Court

Family Division

Practice Areas

Public Children Law

In this case the issue was for the court to decide whether the children should live in long-term foster care and indefinitely and continue to have contact with their Mother, or whether they should be placed for adoption, with only the hope, rather than the certainty, of having contact with their Mother.

To read the judgment in full click here.