

Professor Jo Delahunty QC awarded Outstanding Contribution to Diversity Inclusion by Chambers & Partners

18th November 2021

Jo Delahunty QC, won an award, amongst esteemed colleagues acknowledged by Chambers and Partners on 18th November for the new category recognising, Outstanding Contributions to Diversity & Inclusion.

The following colleagues were nominated alongside Jo:

Harry Matovu QC, Brick Court Chambers ;
Rehana Azib, 2 Temple Gardens;
Robin White, Old Square Chambers;
Dr S Chelvan, 33 Bedford Row;
Valerie Charbit, Red Lion Chambers.

Professor Jo Delahunty QC is one of the UK's leading family barristers specialising in child protection law. The first person in her family to attend university, Jo has consistently been at the vanguard of D&I progress at the Bar. She is part of the Middle & Inner Temple Inns of Court Women's Forum, a champion for Bridging the Bar and has consistently used her platform as an Emeritus Gresham Professor of Law to promote diversity at the Bar.