

4PB delighted to welcome Chris Stevenson

6th December 2021

Chambers are delighted to announce that Chris Stevenson, formerly of Fourteen, has joined 4PB with immediate effect.

Chris is a highly regarded children practitioner, and as recommended by the Legal 500 2022, he is "Committed to client care of the highest standard. He has a pragmatic approach but deals with clients in a sensitive and friendly way. He prepares cases very thoroughly and has a real attention to detail."

Head of Chambers, Alex Verdan QC said, "We warmly welcome Chris as a member of Chambers. He is a highly regarded and very well thought of specialist children practitioner. We are delighted that he joins us at 4PB."

Chris said "It is an enormous privilege to be joining 4PB. I am looking forward to working alongside some of the best children law barristers in the country, and am excited to be able to contribute to chambers' growth and continued success."

To view Chris's profile click here.