Profile

Prior to commencing pupillage in October 2022, Nadia was a paralegal at Withers LLP for a year. She assisted partners and associates with complex financial remedy and private children work, including legal research and drafting. Before joining Withers LLP, Nadia was a paralegal at Sears Tooth. Nadia assisted with private children work and financial remedies cases. Nadia also worked at 4PB as a legal assistant for a year, working with members of Chambers across all family law specialisms.

Nadia has previously worked as a caseworker at Advocate and volunteered with the Personal Support Unit (now Support Through Court), providing practical and emotional assistance for litigants in person as they face court alone.

In her free time, Nadia enjoys walking, cooking, and listening to podcasts.
