

Alan Inglis in memorium

14th August 2023

It is with great sadness that 4PB announces the death of our friend and colleague, Alan Inglis. Alan was unique; the only family barrister and advocate, qualified to practice in England and Wales and Scotland, he was admired and very much loved on both sides of the border.

We were honoured to have him as a door tenant and he was very supportive of 4PB's work. Alan started his working life as a social worker before becoming a barrister.

He was known as a fearless defender of LGBTQ rights and found time to be a trustee of the Scottish Child Law and Equality Network. He will be very much missed by all of us who knew him.
