

Charlotte Baker Returns from Maternity Leave

21st October 2024

We are thrilled to welcome back Charlotte Baker from maternity leave, returning to practice today.

Charlotte specialises in complex children law disputes, predominately focusing on cases with an international element and serious allegations of domestic and sexual abuse.

Known as a “tenacious and formidable advocate”, Charlotte has built a reputation for her careful advice, “forensic approach” and “meticulous” cross- examination. Her excellence has been recognised in the Chambers & Partners and Legal 500 guides, where she continues to be recognised as a leading junior and described as “passionate and completely on top of the case law” and “a phenomenal advocate” with “superb client care”.

For information regarding Charlotte’s availability, please contact our Practice Managers on 0207 427 5200.
