Profile

Mark is a dedicated family advocate whose practice encompasses all aspects of family law. His easy approach, robust advocacy and user friendly demeanour make him a popular choice with solicitors.

Children

Mark regularly represents local authorities, parents and guardians in public law proceedings across all tiers of Court. Such cases involve non accidental injury including ‘baby shaking’ cases, infant death, sexual and physical abuse as well as neglect cases. In private law cases, Mark represents parents in relation to residence applications, including shared residence, contact and specific issue.

International Movement of Children

Mark regularly appears in the High Court representing parents in cases of Child Abduction, (both Hague and non Hague cases), Inherent Jurisdiction, Wardship, Brussels II and International Relocation of Children.

Divorce

Within the breakdown of marriage, Mark represents husbands and wives in ancillary relief cases, including “big money” cases, financial provision for children and CSA appeals. Increasingly Mark is instructed in cases where the court’s jurisdiction is questioned and the issue of “Forum Conveniens” has to be determined. Additionally Mark has appeared in the Care Standards Tribunal in an appeal against the incorporation of a social worker on the POCA list.

Interests

Mark’s interests include sailing, skiing and squash.

“Super pragmatic and doesn’t take silly points. Very focused on the right issues, he knows where the strengths of his cases lie and he exploits those strengths to the max. He is clever, strategic and forceful.”

Chambers and Partners, 2024

‘Mark is straightforward to deal with, gives thoughtful and considered advice that has been strategically very sound and is an excellent advocate. He does not shy away from addressing difficult issues but can present them to the court in a way that makes it clear the solution he puts forward is the obvious route for the judge to follow. He has an excellent legal brain and an exceptional knowledge of international matters. His preparation and organisation are meticulous.’

Legal 500, 2024

“Mark Jarman is a very strong advocate, who mixes fierce cross-examination with clear explanations for clients, inspiring their confidence throughout.”

“Mark offers an exceptional level of knowledge, commitment and expertise.”

Chambers and Partners, 2023

‘Mark has a very calm and knowledgeable presence both in and outside court. He is helpful, responsive and strategic in his approach.’

Legal 500, 2023

“A real grafter who presents clear arguments and is frequently before the High Court on international children matters.” “He commands the respect of the court and is realistic in his approach. Mark advances his client’s case in cross-examination in a way that makes it sound easy.” “He sets realistic expectations but remains sympathetic to his clients. He gets to the bottom of all the issues in a case.”

Chambers & Partners, 2022

‘ Highly experienced in children work, very personable with clients, solicitors wouldn’t hesitate to instruct him. ’
