

Sarah Lewis

The majority of Sarah's work is in care proceedings, representing Local Authorities, parents, interveners and children, at all levels of Court. She also carries out private law children work.

Experience

Year of Call: 1995

Practice Areas

- Private Children Law
- Public Children Law

Education

MA (Cantab)

Profile

Sarah believes that all parties need to have robust advice and representation, although always with an empathetic approach. She finds the best way to achieve this is with continuity of representation where possible and effective "teamwork" throughout proceedings.

sarah has a particular interest in proceedings involving complex medical evidence, non-accidental injury, sexual abuse and neglect, as well as issues of mental health difficulties or learning disabilities / difficulties.

Memberships

Family Law Bar Association
 Middle Temple

Cases

07/03/2012	Re P (Children) (2012)	Sarah Lewis	[2012] EWCA Civ 401
14/12/2011	Re D (Children) (2011)	Sarah Lewis	[2011] EWCA Civ 1743
19/07/1996	H v H (Abduction: Acquiescence)	Private: Marcus Scott-Manderson QC Sarah Lewis	[1996] 2 FLR 570